

Communications

- Media relations
- Press releases
- CRU statements
- + Statements
- Internal communications
- Publications Office
- Homepage Images

Statements

Other statements made by the university are available here.

Statements

Statement from Vice-Chancellor Prof Edward Acton

The University of East Anglia responded to a request from Roger Helmer MEP for a meeting to discuss the allegations concerning the Climatic Research Unit, the outcome of recent reviews and the future for climate science. The meeting was also attended by Stewart Agnew MEP. Read more

Thu, 4 Nov 2010

Science success for University of East Anglia

Prof Phil Jones, director of research at the University of East Anglia's Climatic Research Unit has been named one of the most important figures in British science in a new publication by The Times. Read more

Thu, 7 Oct 2010

University reaction to the Global Warming Policy Forum report

Three independent reviews have found in favour of the integrity and honesty of the scientists in the Climatic Research Unit and there is an overwhelming scientific consensus that the world is warming and that humankind is having a marked effect on the rate of warming. Read more

Tue, 14 Sep 2010

Statement from Professor Edward Acton

The Vice-Chancellor has issued the following statement to emphasise the complementary nature of reviews into the Climate Research Unit (CRU). Read more

Mon, 13 Sep 2010

Where next for Freedom of Information?

An opinion piece from Prof Edward Acton, Vice-Chancellor, University of East Anglia. Read more

Tue, 31 Aug 2010

CRU Scientific Assessment Panel announced

Lord Oxburgh FRS, a former chair of the Lords Select Committee on Science and Technology, is to chair an independent Scientific Assessment Panel to examine important elements of the published science of the Climatic Research Unit (CRU) at the University of East Anglia. Read more

Mon, 22 Mar 2010

Statement from Vice Chancellor Prof Edward Acton

The University of East Anglia has released the following statement from the Vice-Chancellor Professor Edward Acton, following the Parliamentary Select Committee on March 1, 2010. Read more

Mon, 1 Mar 2010

New scientific assessment of climatic research publications announced

An independent external reappraisal of the science in the Climatic Research Unit's (CRU) key publications has been announced by the University of East Anglia. Read more

Thu, 11 Feb 2010

Statement from Professor Edward Acton, Vice-Chancellor, University of East Anglia

The University of East Anglia has released the following statement from the Vice-Chancellor Professor Edward Acton. Read more

Thu, 28 Jan 2010

Prince visits University of East Anglia to hear of latest environmental findings

The Prince of Wales visited the University of East Anglia's world-renowned School of Environmental Sciences to be updated about its recent work. Read more

Wed, 27 Jan 2010

Sir Muir Russell to head the Independent Review into the allegations against the Climatic Research Unit \(CRU\)

Today the University of East Anglia (UEA) announced that Sir Muir Russell KCB FRSE will head the Independent Review into allegations made against the Climatic Research Unit (CRU). Read more

Thu, 3 Dec 2009

CRU update 3

Professor Phil Jones has today announced that he will stand aside as Director of the Climatic Research Unit until the completion of an independent Review resulting from allegations following the hacking and publication of emails from the Unit. Read more

Tue, 1 Dec 2009

CRU update 1

It is a matter of concern that data, including personal information about individuals, appears to have been illegally taken from the university and elements published selectively on a number of websites. Read more

Mon, 23 Nov 2009

Print

Bookmark this page:

